CHEF PIA INTRODUCED TO TYC

On July 22, fifty people enjoyed Chef Pia's chicken adobo dinner. TYC and Pia are giving each other a trial run to see if Pia's catering can become an occasional option for TYC meals. If you missed this first dinner, Chef Pia returns on August 12 to cook an Italian dinner. Please let me know what you think.

Welcoming to New Members as TYC's Goal

Chef Pia was not the only new introduction. Several new-member applicants were introduced at the club, giving us the opportunity to further our efforts to be welcoming to new members. "Welcoming to New Members" is the club's motto going forward, starting with board members wearing identifiable name tags (red ribbons for now) so we can be easily identified as friendly faces to ask questions of, etc. After a presentation from TYC member and organizational expert Ken Stubbs, the board decided to launch an effort to make all members feel welcome—particularly new members—and to increase participation and engagement by all. Thank you, Ken, for your work. New members can be identified by a red star on their name tags. If you see any new members, please welcome them with greetings and conversation. I encourage everyone to reach out to a new face—or even an old face you haven't seen at the club for a while.

September's General Meeting Discussion: "State of the Club"

The General Meeting on September 9 will be a forum to discuss the state of the club and ideas for the rest of the year. Please attend. Bring ideas about how TYC can evolve and how you can help.

Fun and Varied July Activities

Friday dinners have been a global culinary tour. The usual July 4th strong winds didn't impact the most popular activity: face painting, arranged by Rita Pirie. Not only were kids wearing creative scenes, animals and designs, but adults also lined up to be painted. Thank you Rita, the team of July 4th volunteers and all the Friday night dinner leaders.

Upcoming Events: The Salmon Derby now has two great prizes: a free haul-out at Bay Marine, and a Johnson and Hicks floating transceiver. More prizes to come! New this year: no registration fee for skippers and anglers, but online registration is required.

The Commodore's Cruise to Marin Yacht Club is September 23-25. Saturday's picnic starts at noon. Please bring a side dish. Marin YC has invited us to join them in their "day of racing" on Saturday, a family event with Laser Picos and paddle boards.

I look forward to another month of fun events and activities at TYC. Let's see some welcoming faces at the club. Every member can contribute to that.

Sailors Mark and Ian enjoy Mai Tais after completing the 2016 Pacific Cup.

New record set for completing Pacific Cup in a Moore 24

TYC members Gerry and Carole Gunn's nephew, Mark English, recently finished the Pacific Cup in record time: 10 days, 15 hours in their Moore 24, iMas!.

Mark and his sailing partner, Ian, broke TYC member John Donovan's standing record of 11 days, 9 hours set in 1998 in his Moore 24, Low Profile.

Congratulations, Mark and Ian! Hope you are enjoying some well-deserved relaxation time in Hawaii.

JULY RECAP

Fourth of July came off with a Bang! Face painter extraordinaire Tatyana dazzled children and adults alike with her award-winning artistry. Not knowing how many children would be attending the party, Tatyana was originally booked for only one hour. But once she started painting, every child wanted something. And then the adults joined in on the fun. To everyone's delight, Tatyana ended up staying for two and half hours. Roving photographers Marshall Gross and Walt Bilofsky captured it all. You can see their photos on page 10.

The club looked fabulously festive decked out in red, white and blue thanks to our decorating committee (see below). Carol Campbell was the head chef who created an absolutely delicious menu and barbecue with handmade burgers, brats, homemade potato salad and coleslaw with baked beans. This took a lot of hours of preparation and many volunteers. Many thanks to Carol and all of her sous chefs, including Carol's friend Rosie. Thanks also to Shirley Vaughan for making sure everyone had a beverage. And big thanks to everyone who helped clean up. You know who you are and your help was appreciated!

TYC-It's Friday! continues through August 19 with ever-changing menus from our race crews and chefs. So come on down and enjoy these evenings while you can.

Coming Up:

August 27 - Salmon Derby, details on page 7.

September 17 - Aloha Night at TYC; details on page 4.

October 29 - The Red Rock Race and Costume Party; details on page 9.

Volunteer Acknowledgements

July 4th

TYC's Annual Fourth of July celebration brought over 90 people to the club participating in a variety of activities including outdoor fun for children and face painting, which was enjoyed by both kids and adults alike. Thanks go out to TYC's board—particularly to Rita Pirie for coordination and Carol Campbell for shopping and menu planning. Thank you also to the many other volunteers including, but not limited to:

In the Galley: Carol Campbell, Emma Campbell, Jane Clark, Ruth Fults, Jackie Royal, Karen Obley, Jon and Betsy Price, Jens and Solveig Erlingsson, Ian and René Matthew

Set Up: Carole and Gerry Gunn, Jack Solomon, Susan and Bill Hoehler, Patty Cerf

Friday Night Dinners

A Puerto Rican dinner from Sol Food was featured at the July 1st dinner, thanks to Patty Cerf. Members were able to enjoy some food not on their regular daily menu.

Some comfort foods are best savored with friends and neighbors. So Susan Hoehler and Sondra Blake brought TYC a perennial favorite of Sloppy Joes on July 8. Thanks to them and their helpers, including bartenders Harry Blake, Don Kunstler and Shirley Vaughan.

The Dream Team of Melanie Wegner, Lilliana Royal and Christine Miller brought the option of barbequed pulled pork or chicken sandwiches and a specialty bar drink to TYC on July 15. With help from Jackie Royal, Lauren Selmeier and others, everyone enjoyed the evening. Thank you all!

Dinner on July 22 featured a paid chef and cleaner. However, volunteers were still essential. Thank you Race Committee Ann Watson and Jane Clark, without whom the racers would have experienced chaos. Thank you set-up helpers Robert Clark and Walt Bilofsky, without whom diners would have had to eat standing up. Thank you bartenders Shirley Vaughan, Fumi Cooperband and others, without whom elevated joviality would have been sorely missing.

LOCH LOMOND CRUISE RECAP—BY CRUISE LEADER JON PRICE

Two power yachts and two sailboats arrived at Loch Lomond Yacht Club's guest dock Friday, July 8, which, since dredging, offered ample depth, and of course, plenty of space.

That evening our host club was having one of its regular dinners to which we were invited. Several of our group attended, and there was general agreement that we fared extremely well with the excellent hospitality of our hosts.

Saturday morning found most of us surveying the surroundings, which have changed vastly since most of us were last there. The original plan was to do a total renovation of the premises starting in 2008. Delayed by the recession, but finally in progress, the end result is remarkable. Very pleasant looking condominiums occupy perhaps two thirds of the developable area, with building continuing. The final configuration will leave only Loch Lomond Yacht Club in its original location.

Saturday evening, Marshall Gross hosted us for cocktails on Solitaire, followed by our hosts producing another fine dinner. A number of our club members were land cruisers and joined us to round out a very pleasant evening.

All in all, a great weekend on this cruise. Below are a few photos from the weekend.
